Isaiah 43:18

“Remember not the former things; neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.”

Patricia has dedicated her life in service to others, having worked with both individuals and groups in outpatient mental health day programs as well as inpatient settings. Her experience encompasses diagnostic evaluations of psychosocial issues, assisting clients in the formation of goals for alleviating psychosocial problems, and the utilization of comprehensive therapeutic counseling methods to support persons seeking to achieve those goals.

She is dedicated to providing a caring environment in which individual clients may experience unconditional positive regard thereby enabling them to work in the direction of their goals. Patricia applies various principles, concepts, theories and practices geared toward the individual needs of the client who seeks relief from various mental health and adjustment issues in a nurturing atmosphere of acceptance.
